

Florida CraftArt Festival 2022

Emerging Artist Program

Florida CraftArt is proud to continue the tradition of an Emerging Artist Program at the Florida CraftArt Festival 2022.

Participating emerging artists will receive:

- Business mentoring with renowned glass artist and gallery owner Duncan McClellan
- 10' x 10' booth space, tent, table, and chairs, ($450 value)
- $15 per day for lunch, ($30 value)
- 1 session to photograph their work and headshot

The CraftArt Festival juror will judge and best Emerging Artist Ribbon Award will be presented.

The Emerging Artists selection criteria, the artist:

1. has not participated in an outdoor art festival
2. is at the beginning of his or her professional artist career*
3. has not had a solo art show (other than college or university show)
4. Is a Florida resident (minimum six months of the year)

Remember – not all emerging artists are under the age of 30.*

Artists must submit three images and have the ability to produce a significant body of work to display at the CraftArt Festival. Artists' work will be juried to ensure the quality of the show. All fine craft mediums are eligible: ceramics, fiber, glass, jewelry, metal, mixed media, sculpture, and wood.
