CONTEST!

HOMETOWN love

2024 STUART MAGAZINE PHOTO CONTEST

We are giving locals the chance to be published in an upcoming issue by showcasing their best photos that convey a message of "Hometown Love." What sums up the beauty of Treasure Coast life to you? Grab your camera, think outside the box, and take your best shot!

HOW TO ENTER

- Send your high-resolution photo shot in the Stuart area
- Include your full name and phone number
- Include a photo description, including location and date taken
- Write a short paragraph describing how this photo expresses "hometown love" in your eyes
- Maximum of 3 photographs allowed per entrant (send a separate email for each photo)

RULES

Contest open to local residents 18 or older only. Photographs must be taken in Martin or St. Lucie County and submitted by the photographer. All entrants certify that they are the sole creator and copyright owner of the photograph. Maximum 3 photographs permitted per entrant; must complete a separate email for each photo. Digital photos should be taken at the highest resolution possible. By submitting a photo, you are granting Stuart Magazine and Palm Beach Media Group the right to reproduce the work in our print publications, on our website, and in materials/social media used to promote the magazine, contest, and/or future related contests. Photos will be judged on creativity, quality, originality, and overall impact. Winners will be notified prior to publication of images. Decisions of Stuart Magazine are final.
